This Week in History ...

Feb. 18, 1930 — While the first cow to fly via airplane soars over the Midwest, astronomer Clyde Tombaugh discovers Pluto as he observes the Arizona sky from the Lowell Observatory.

Feb. 19, 1878 — Thomas Edison receives a patent for his phonograph.

Feb. 20, 1437 — After 13 years of treating his subjects harshly, Scotland’s King James I is murdered by two noblemen and eight soldiers.

Feb. 23, 1945 — The American flag is raised on Japan’s island of Iwo Jima.

Feb. 24, 1874 — Honus Wagner is born. Wagner would become one of the Immortal Five, the first group of men to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame.