CLIPPINGS FROM RIDER HISTORY

SCHEDULE CHANGES

Oct. 18, 1968 — The Interim Study Program is introduced. Semesters are 12 weeks long, each course is three credits and classes are 60 minutes. Thirty-three credits are required to be completed per year.

FUEL AT SCHOOL

Oct. 21, 1977 — An on-campus gas pump is considered, which could lead to both job opportunities and cheaper gas for college-goers.
