And More Sports...
Four members of the men’s and women’s basketball teams were honored Monday. Sophomore guard Jerry Johnson was named first-team All-MAAC, and is also in contention to win MAAC Player of the Year. Freshman Edwin Muniz was named to the MAAC All-Rookie Team.

Sophomore Becky Hower was named second team All-MAAC and fellow sophomore Katie Hall was named third team All-MAAC.

Filling out the rest of the outfield are junior right fielder Scott Rich and senior left fielder Erin Pesaresi. The three combined for close to 200 hits last year. Just like baseball on every other level, pitching will be key.

Junior James Hoey, a pro prospect who will see action starting as well as in the bullpen, will lead the rotation. “We can only go as far as our pitchers take us,” said Long. “We made it to the MAAC Championship Game for the last two years. We want that to continue this year.”

Athletes of the Week
Melissa Michalov, a senior member of the swimming and diving team, has been named The Rider News Female Athlete of the Week.

Rob Baier, a senior member of the swimming and diving team, has been named The Rider News Male Athlete of the Week.

Ball

When the Broncs lace them up this weekend, the spoils of a MAAC Championship Game will determine victory.

The combination of a strong offense and a stingy defense should provide a recipe for success.

Player of the Week

Sam Engle

Sophomore Sam Engle received three medals this past weekend in the ECAC Tournament. Engle placed 4th in the 100 meter backstroke, 200 meter backstroke, and 7th in the 200 Individual Medley.

Congratulations Sam Engle for being named The Rider News Player of the Week.
