Cranberry Cafe holds grand opening

Sara Griffi ths, a Westminster Choir College Graduate, sings “How Beautiful Are the Feet” by composer Julia Perry at the BLC theater.

estimated at $350 and the investigation is continuing.

Crank Yankers
Security was dispatched to Zaiger Residence Hall for a harassment report. The complainant contacted security on Oct. 13 at 11 p.m. stating that he had received a threatening phone call. Security made contact with the victim who stated that an unidentified male caller said that he would be coming over to the victim’s room to do harm to him. Further investigation revealed that the call had been placed by a friend of the victim who is a student. The suspect admitted to placing the call as a prank. The suspect has been charged with verbal harassment, a violation of the social code.

Media Theft
Security was dispatched to the Maurer building for a reported misappropriation of property on Saturday, Oct. 11, at 9:30 p.m. Upon arrival, security spoke with the complainant, who stated that a VCR and a camcorder had been stolen. An investigation is continuing. Anyone with information is asked to contact campus security at x. 5029.

upHill Drinking
An unauthorized party was broken up in Hill Residence Hall on Saturday, Oct. 10, at 11:26 p.m. Security was dispatched for an alcohol violation report. Upon arrival, an investigation revealed that there were two underage female students in the room where the party was being held. Alcohol was located in the room and confiscated. The students are being charged with alcohol policy violation and, in addition, one of the suspects involved was under the influence and was taken to a nearby hospital by ambulance where she was treated and released. She was also charged by the police for underage alcohol consumption.

Squirrely Decorations
A dismembered squirrel was found placed on the doorstep of a resident student’s room in Hill Residence Hall on Sunday, Oct. 12, at 2 a.m. Security was dispatched and a search of the area was conducted with negative results. Cleaners were contacted and they cleaned the area and disposed of the dead animal. There are no suspects.