Continued from page 11

‘Recreation’

Continued from page 11
time to start a club sport. Rider encourages students to start their own clubs and organizations that are not currently included on the list. Things are looking up in this club department though, as the club baseball team was recognized officially this past Tuesday. Hopefully this could be a start of a positive pattern.

As you are reading this for club sports.

As the club baseball team was recognized officially this past Tuesday. Hopefully this could be a start of a positive pattern.

T uesday. Hopefully this could be recognized officially this past
Tuesday. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.

Christina Ang of the field hockey team was named the NEC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Ang scored two goals in the game against Monmouth on September 21st. She now has ten goals on the season. Ang has received this honor for the second consecutive week.

The athletics department announced on Tuesday that the field hockey team has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories of statistics. Rider’s offensive attack is highlighted in the rankings, as the Broncos are 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.75) and 15th in margin of victory (1.75). Defensively, the team is sixth in goals allowed per game (1). Finally, Rider’s 8-1 record is seventh best in the nation.

Tami Coyle of the women’s soccer team has been named the MAAC player of the week for all games played during the period of September 20-26. Coyle receives this award for the second consecutive week. She scored three goals and added an assist, as the Broncos went 2-1 that week.