There was another Bronc that proved that theory wrong.

When Lori Hussong took over the program in 2000, she and her husband coached the team from a distant 4-14 in 1999 to a NEC Championship. An outstanding senior class recruited by the Hussongs and great coaching were the pivotal factors that ensured Rider’s third conference championship in their five year tenure. Not to mention earning the best record in the school’s history. The two coaches can’t help but smile at how things can change in a span of a few months.
