Brcons’ Bits

Score/Records
(“denotes conference game)

Volleyball (15-3, 3rd MAAC)
11/20 (MAAC Semifinal at Seton Hall)
Iona 3 Rider 0

Men’s Basketball (2-1)
11/20
Bucknell 69 Rider 50
11/27
Rider 76 Drexel 71
11/30
Rider 78 Monmouth 61

Women’s Basketball (0-3)
11/20
Rutgers 90 Rider 42
11/23
Montmouth 57 Rider 49
11/30
Sacred Heart 71 Rider 57

Men’s Swimming (2-5)
11/20
Rider 153 Delaware 84

Women’s Swimming (0-7)
11/20
Delaware 153 Rider 85

Wrestling (0-0)
11/27 (at Lock Haven)
Seventh Place at Mat Town
USA Invitational

Ice Hockey (3-5 MACHA)

Schedule

Friday, 12/3
Men’s Basketball
vs. Mass. 7:30 p.m.

Women’s Basketball
at Niagara 7 p.m.

M/W Swimming
at Princeton Invitational 11 a.m.

Ice Hockey
at New York University 8:30 p.m.

Saturday, 12/4

Wrestling
vs. Lehigh 2 p.m.

M/W Swimming
Princeton Invitational 11 a.m.

M/W Indoor Track and Field at Lafayette Invitational 9:30 a.m.

Ice Hockey
vs. TCNJ 9:15 p.m.

Sunday, 12/5

Men’s Basketball
at Iona 2 p.m.

Women’s Basketball
at Canisius 1 p.m.

M/W Swimming and Diving
at Princeton Invitational 10 a.m.

Thursday, 12/9

Women’s Basketball
at St. Francis (NY) 7 p.m.

Men’s Basketball
vs. Fairleigh Dickinson 7:30 p.m.

...And More Sports

On the weekend before Thanksgiving break, the wrestling team was swept by Iona 3-0 in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) semifinals held at Seton Hall. Senior Jaclyn Levi had six kills and eight digs in her final game as a Bronc. Junior Stefanie Lombardo’s 10 kills and 17 digs led the team, giving her all-tournament honors. The Brongs finished the regular season in third place with a record of 15-13 and participated in the MAAC Tournament for the first time in school history.

“...I think a lot of [the freshmen] are ready to contribute fresh off the start,” said Ramos. “They are learning a lot and are getting adapted to this level of track.”

Head coach Bill Hodge along with assistants Rob Pasquarello and Bob Hamer have been vigorously preparing their athletes as they lead the teams into Lafayette this week-end.

“The coaches have been pushing us and keeping us focused on our goals,” said Ramos. “We are just excited and ready to get this season started.”

The Rider athletic department announced that senior Sandro DeCristofaro of the men’s soccer team and senior Jaclyn Levi of the volleyball team were named Rider University Athletes of the Month for November. DeCristofaro put in a hat trick in Rider’s upset victory of top seeded Loyola in the MAAC semifinals. Levi was sixth in kills and ninth in digs in the MAAC.

The Rider athletic department announced that senior Sandro DeCristofaro of the men’s soccer team and senior Jaclyn Levi of the volleyball team were named Rider University Athletes of the Month for November. DeCristofaro put in a hat trick in Rider’s upset victory of top seed Loyola in the MAAC semifinals. Levi was sixth in kills and ninth in digs in the MAAC.

Freshman Tim Harner (133 lbs.) of the wrestling team was named the Colonial Athletic Association Co-Rookie of the Week. Harner went 4-0 in the 133 lb. weight class and earned first place at the Keystone Classic held at the University of Pennsylvania on Nov. 20. In the meet, Rider also earned enough points for first place.

Another notable strength on the team include Amy Sura (distance) and Clare O’Connell (sprints) and Anthony Reid (distance), Joseph Hallowell (distance). Seniors on this year’s team include Amy Sura (distance) and Clare O’Connell (sprints). The freshman class and most of our returning athletes continues to take a dive. You will see me, face paint, at the men’s basketball game tonight, delivering an occasional taunt towards an opposing player; hopefully, I won’t have to bring my box of peanut butter. I am not sure if you can say Americans backwards, it is pretty much the same thing.

I think a lot of [the freshmen] are ready to contribute fresh off the start,” said Ramos. “They are learning a lot and are getting adapted to this level of track.”

Head coach Bill Hodge along with assistants Rob Pasquarello and Bob Hamer have been vigorously preparing their athletes as they lead the teams into Lafayette this weekend.

“The coaches have been pushing us and keeping us focused on our goals,” said Ramos. “We are just excited and ready to get this season started.”

The women’s squad include Amy Sura (distance) and Clare O’Connell (sprints) and Anthony Reid (distance), Joseph Hallowell (distance). Seniors on this year’s team include Amy Sura (distance) and Clare O’Connell (sprints). The freshman class and most of our returning athletes continues to take a dive. You will see me, face paint, at the men’s basketball game tonight, delivering an occasional taunt towards an opposing player; hopefully, I won’t have to bring my box of peanut butter.

I think a lot of [the freshmen] are ready to contribute fresh off the start,” said Ramos. “They are learning a lot and are getting adapted to this level of track.”

Head coach Bill Hodge along with assistants Rob Pasquarello and Bob Hamer have been vigorously preparing their athletes as they lead the teams into Lafayette this weekend.

“The coaches have been pushing us and keeping us focused on our goals,” said Ramos. “We are just excited and ready to get this season started.”

The Rider athletic department announced that senior Sandro DeCristofaro of the men’s soccer team and senior Jaclyn Levi of the volleyball team were named Rider University Athletes of the Month for November. DeCristofaro put in a hat trick in Rider’s upset victory of top seed Loyola in the MAAC semifinals. Levi was sixth in kills and ninth in digs in the MAAC.

The Rider athletic department announced that senior Sandro DeCristofaro of the men’s soccer team and senior Jaclyn Levi of the volleyball team were named Rider University Athletes of the Month for November. DeCristofaro put in a hat trick in Rider’s upset victory of top seed Loyola in the MAAC semifinals. Levi was sixth in kills and ninth in digs in the MAAC.

Freshman Tim Harner (133 lbs.) of the wrestling team was named the Colonial Athletic Association Co-Rookie of the Week. Harner went 4-0 in the 133 lb. weight class and earned first place at the Keystone Classic held at the University of Pennsylvania on Nov. 20. In the meet, Rider also earned enough points for first place.

“...I think a lot of [the freshmen] are ready to contribute fresh off the start,” said Ramos. “They are learning a lot and are getting adapted to this level of track.”

Head coach Bill Hodge along with assistants Rob Pasquarello and Bob Hamer have been vigorously preparing their athletes as they lead the teams into Lafayette this weekend.

“The coaches have been pushing us and keeping us focused on our goals,” said Ramos. “We are just excited and ready to get this season started.”

The women’s squad include Amy Sura (distance) and Clare O’Connell (sprints) and Anthony Reid (distance), Joseph Hallowell (distance). Seniors on this year’s team include Amy Sura (distance) and Clare O’Connell (sprints). The freshman class and most of our returning athletes continues to take a dive. You will see me, face paint, at the men’s basketball game tonight, delivering an occasional taunt towards an opposing player; hopefully, I won’t have to bring my box of peanut butter.

I think a lot of [the freshmen] are ready to contribute fresh off the start,” said Ramos. “They are learning a lot and are getting adapted to this level of track.”

Head coach Bill Hodge along with assistants Rob Pasquarello and Bob Hamer have been vigorously preparing their athletes as they lead the teams into Lafayette this weekend.

“The coaches have been pushing us and keeping us focused on our goals,” said Ramos. “We are just excited and ready to get this season started.”

The Rider athletic department announced that senior Sandro DeCristofaro of the men’s soccer team and senior Jaclyn Levi of the volleyball team were named Rider University Athletes of the Month for November. DeCristofaro put in a hat trick in Rider’s upset victory of top seed Loyola in the MAAC semifinals. Levi was sixth in kills and ninth in digs in the MAAC.

The Rider athletic department announced that senior Sandro DeCristofaro of the men’s soccer team and senior Jaclyn Levi of the volleyball team were named Rider University Athletes of the Month for November. DeCristofaro put in a hat trick in Rider’s upset victory of top seed Loyola in the MAAC semifinals. Levi was sixth in kills and ninth in digs in the MAAC.

Freshman Tim Harner (133 lbs.) of the wrestling team was named the Colonial Athletic Association Co-Rookie of the Week. Harner went 4-0 in the 133 lb. weight class and earned first place at the Keystone Classic held at the University of Pennsylvania on Nov. 20. In the meet, Rider also earned enough points for first place.